

Government of India
Ministry of Ayush

Ayush Admissions Central Counseling Committee (AACCC)

Ref.L-14030/12/2022- EP-1

Dated: 28.02.2022

NOTICE

Kind Attention: All Participating Institutes in the AACCC-UG Counseling, 2021.

AACCC, M/o Ayush is receiving lot of queries from the candidates regarding extension of seat withdrawal/surrender facility for Round-1 allotted seats.

In this regard, it is informed that, if a candidate wants to withdraw/surrender his/her Round-1 allotted seats, the institute can permit the offline surrender/withdrawal of seat from 28.02.2022 onwards, provided candidate shall submit an undertaking regarding the reason for seat surrender and further he/she will not claim for the surrendered seat of Round-1 in future.

Accordingly, it is instructed that, based on the undertaking from the candidate, the Institute shall release the original documents of the candidate which he/she was submitted at the time of reporting/joining. Further, the list of such candidates shall be forwarded to the AACCC, M/o Ayush.

Furthermore, it is also instructed that, the 'Withdrawal/Surrender letter' of the concerned candidates should be generated online by the institute during the seat surrender/withdrawal period provided by the AACCC, M/o Ayush.

*****